Call for Papers:

The Derrida Today Conference will focus on the ongoing value of either Derrida's work, or deconstruction, to the political-ethical, cultural, artistic, public debates and philosophical futures that confront us. The conference is interdisciplinary and invites contributions from a range of academic, disciplinary and cultural contexts. Papers and panel proposals from academics, independent scholars, and graduate students are welcomed. The conference encourages contributions on diverse topics and contemporary issues, and from any discipline in relation to Derrida's work and deconstruction.

Individual papers: each paper will be 20 mins, with 10 mins for Q&A

Panels: will run from 90 mins (with 3 papers), or 120 mins (with 4 papers).
